(4.)—No Candidate will on any account be allowed to take into the Examination Room books or papers of any kind. Any one detected with such in his possession, or having recourse to any unfair practices, will be removed from the room and the occurrence be reported to the Commissioner.

(5.)—A Candidate having completed his paper will rise from his seat and remain standing until the Superintendent takes his answer papers. Any Candidate wishing to ask any question will pursue the same course, but will on no account leave his place.

(6.)—Any paper sent up without the Candidate's name and number affixed will not be examined.

(7.)—Candidates will not be allowed to take any papers, except their question papers, out of the Examination Room.

(8.)—Candidates are forbidden to tear up papers or to throw papers on the floor. All "spoilt copies, &c.," should be left on the desk where the Candidate has been writing.

(9.)—Candidates will be allowed to retain their question papers.

ANCHE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 723—504. The 12th January 1880.

It is hereby notified for general information that under the authority of the Chief Commissioner of Mysore, experimental Anche Offices will be opened from the 1st February 1880 at the places named below. The Hobli schoolmasters at the places will perform the Anche work in addition to their duties as schoolmasters :—

1. Krishnarajpur	..	Bangalore Taluk	..	Bangalore District.
2. Tavarekere	..	Hoskote Taluk	..	Do
3. Narsapur	..	Malur Taluk	..	Kolar District.

No. 785—540. The 28th January 1880.

The following Circular No. 142, dated the 12th January 1880, by the Director General of the Post Office of India, is published for general information and guidance.

B. MARI GANGAIYA,
Anche Bakshi.

"As the vessels of the P. & O. Company running between India and Ceylon will, in all cases, be non-contract vessels after the 1st February next, I have the honor to inform you that correspondence for Ceylon despatched by those vessels will be subject to the rates and conditions now applying to correspondence forwarded to Ceylon by the P. & O. Steamers for Australia (see 'Ceylon by private vessel,' page 33 of the Postal Guide of December 1879). The route 'viâ Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, by British Packet through Galle,' now given in the Postal Guide under the head 'Ceylon' (Foreign Post Schedule) will, therefore, be struck out of the Guide after the 1st February next.

2. Correspondence despatched by P. & O. vessels between Calcutta and Madras will be subject, after the 1st February next, to the rates and conditions applicable to correspondence despatched by private vessel; prepayment will, therefore, be compulsory and registration not available for such correspondence.

3. Correspondence for China, the Straits and the Australian Colonies, conveyed from India to Galle by the non-contract vessels of the P. & O. Company, and from Galle to destination by the contract vessels of the same Company, need not be regarded as correspondence forwarded by 'private vessel.'

4. The Postal Guide will probably be re-published in April next, the changes shewn above will appear in the next edition of the Guide.

No. 783—538. The 28th January 1880.

The following Postal Notice is published for general information.

2. Spare copies of this notice are forwarded to the Anche Mutsaddis for circulation.

B. MARI GANGAIYA,
Anche Bakshi.

The route for the correspondence addressed to the United Kingdom via Southampton will be abolished after the 1st February 1880, and ordinary and registered correspondence addressed to the United Kingdom and countries served through it will thereafter be forwarded via Brindisi at the rates of postage given below.

Soldiers' and Seamen's correspondence prepaid for transmission via Brindisi will be forwarded by that route, but such correspondence prepaid at the lower (9 pies) rate will be forwarded from India to the United Kingdom, Gibraltar, Malta, and Cyprus by private vessel. Letters so sent by private vessel cannot be registered and must be prepaid.

2. The revised rates given below will appear in the Postal Abstract to be issued in February next; the Postal Guide, however, will not be re-published before April next.
